

Benefits of UAC voting membership

Benefits for voting members of UAC:

- The opportunity to exhibit at UAC expos in most Australian capital cities and some regional centres
- Opportunities to exhibit at UAC expos in business centres in New Zealand
- Access to a wide range of discounted products and services for members and their staff
- Professional development & training days tailored to agencies' requirements
- Free breakfast sessions covering relevant legal and regulatory issues
- Specialised professional indemnity arrangements in Australia via UAC's preferred broker
- Legal services and advice at UAC's member discount rates
- Your contact details listed on the UAC website for ease of access by brokers
- Access via the website to assistance requests from brokers for hard-to-place risks
- Regular e-newsletters keeping you in touch with issues of interest
- The ability to use the tagline 'A member of the Underwriting Agencies Council' on marketing collateral
- Participation in the ANZIIF underwriting agency of the year award (currently Australia only)
- Representation on behalf of agencies to government and industry
- Enhancement of the agency sector's industry profile through UAC's marketing activities
- Use of a standardised Code of Conduct and Constitution